

Frequently Asked Questions

- Do you accept walk-in tattoos?

Yes, we do. Our artists accept walk ins on a first come first served basis. Those tattoos must be palm sized or smaller with a simple design and minimal shading or color. Anything that would take more than two hours of tattoo time needs to be scheduled as an appointment.

- How do I schedule an appointment?

Please use the online booking tool located here to get your process started. You can also send us an email to ta2pete@hotmail.com with all the necessary information about your inquiry such as pictures of the tattoo idea, desired placement on your body, and a description of your vision. This information is a MUST to proceed with an appointment. All appointments require a nonrefundable deposit that varies based on the time frame booked.

- Can I get my deposit back?

All deposits are nonrefundable. If you cancel your appointment completely – you forfeit any prepaid deposit you have. If you need to reschedule with less than 48-hour notice, you may forfeit any prepaid deposit and find it necessary to place another one to get scheduled.

- Do I need my ID when getting a tattoo or piercing?

Yes. For ALL piercing and tattoo appointments you MUST present original valid photo ID. Per Health Department Standards and Regulations it must be an unexpired photo ID such as Driver License, Identification Card, Passport, or Military ID. Copies and pictures will not accepted.

- What do I need to bring for a minor's piercing appointment?

For all minor piercing appointments, you MUST bring the necessary documentations in its original forms. You can use a minor's original birth certificate, parent valid photo ID with last name matching and, school ID of the minor if available. For legal guardians bring all court documents to prove guardianship for the minor. Presence of parent or legal guardian is required at all times. Failure to show up for the appointment with the required documentation will result in the forfeiture of any prepaid deposit, or for the amount of the service being processed on the card when booking online.
